PROGRESS REPORT - CONTINUED

Committed Name: SMITH, Teresa Reg. No.: 80378-038 Date: March 19, 2005

16. INSTITUTIONAL ADJUSTMENT:

- A. PROGRAM PLAN: Ms. Smith was initially classified at the Federal Prison Camp, Danbury, Connecticut, on September 5, 2003. At that time, the unit team encouraged her to participate in the Financial Responsibility Program, exercise at least three times per week, Puppies Behind Bars Program, weekly recreational activities, and maintain clear conduct. Ms. Smith's adjustment to incarceration has been very good. She quickly became acclimated to the physical and social structure of the Camp and has not had any problems. She has participated in the Financial Responsibility Program, Puppies Behind Bars, and recreational activities as recommended during classification. She had received approval to participate in the Intensive Confinement Center Program, however, the program has been cancelled bureau-wide because of budget cuts. Ms. Smith maintains a good rapport with staff and her peers.
- B. WORK ASSIGNMENTS: Ms. Smith has been assigned to the Puppies Behind Bars Program since December 13, 2003. In the program, she attends weekly classes on raising and training dogs. Once trained these dogs are used as guide dogs for the blind and explosive detection for law enforcement agencies. As a primary raiser, she is responsible for the housebreaking, obedience training, socialization, and grooming of her assigned puppy. To date, she has successfully trained one puppy over a twelve-month period. She continues to work full-time in the program with other puppies. In addition, she works as an orderly in the Camp. She is responsible for cleaning and setting up the visiting room. Ms. Smith is also helpful in assisting with the Admission and Orientation Program for new inmates. She helps to coordinate the roster of speakers on orientation days and guides the new inmates through the day long process. Ms. Smith does her work in a very orderly manner, is very dependable and requires minimal supervision in performing her duties. She has consistently received outstanding work performance evaluations on all job assignments. Ms. Smith is very eager to assist staff and inmates in other areas whenever the need arises.
- C. EDUCATIONAL/VOCATIONAL PARTICIPATION: Ms. Smith received her high school diploma prior to incarceration and has no educational requirements to fulfill. She has completed a Crochet craft class and signed up to participate in a 21-credit college program for Business Management.
